

SCREEN FREE

TODDLER PLAY

Fine Motor Fun

Instructions:

1. Set up your kitchen colander and some chenille stems, and let your child thread them back and forth through the holes.

Helpful hint: Cutting longer chenille stems in half makes them easier for little hands to grasp. Also, uncooked spaghetti works in place of the chenille stems.